MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

WELCOME HOME!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Homecoming 2026!

What a joy it is to celebrate this special time of year with the University of Dubuque family. Homecoming offers us an opportunity to reconnect with one another, return to the places that hold so many memories, and celebrate the enduring spirit of this remarkable University. My family and I continue to be grateful for the warmth of the UD community, and the many stories and traditions that have been so generously shared with us. We look forward to another wonderful Homecoming weekend and making new memories together.

This is an exciting time in the life of the University of Dubuque. We continue to build upon the strong foundation established by generations before us while embracing the remarkable momentum shaping UD today and into the future. Across our campus and the greater Dubuque community, that momentum is evident in new opportunities for our students, continued growth and innovation, and our steadfast commitment to the Mission that has guided this University for nearly 175 years.

As you enjoy the wonderful array of Homecoming events this weekend, I invite you to experience all that is happening at UD and celebrate this exciting chapter for our University. As we look toward the University's 175th anniversary, we do so with gratitude for those who shaped our past, pride in who we are today, and great excitement for all that lies ahead.

Travis L. Frampton, PhD
President of the University

WELCOME HOME, SPARTAN NATION!

It is our pleasure to welcome you back to your campus home - we have missed you! Homecoming is one of the most special times of the year, when lifelong friends reconnect, new friendships are made, and Spartan Spirit fills our campus with excitement.

This weekend is a celebration of what makes UD so meaningful to us all - the people, experiences, and connections that stay with us long after our time on campus. As you enjoy the festivities, reconnect with old friends, meet today's students, share your stories, and take in all that is happening across your campus home.

Homecoming is a true celebration of the bonds that unite us. No matter where life takes us, there is no doubt that we are, and always will be, Forever Spartans. Enjoy the moments!

Best wishes to you and your family as you enjoy Homecoming 2026. We're glad you're here!

 Members who have passed away since Homecoming 2025*

For nearly 175 years, the University of Dubuque has embraced a calling greater than ourselves: to educate and shape the whole person for lives of purpose and service. Generation after generation has carried this Mission forward with faith, hope, and courage.

NOW IS THE MOMENT

Today, we have an extraordinary opportunity to honor our past and boldly shape the future of the University through the Momentum Campaign - a comprehensive effort to empower the future of UD and the world our graduates will go on to serve.

JOIN THE MOMENT

Together, we can create lasting impact on the future of UD and for the communities of tomorrow that need the scientists, faith leaders, healers, aviators, educators, entertainers, and entrepreneurs.

“ I’m so grateful for all that I’ve been able to do and become at UD. And scholarships have played a big part in that. I was able to become more involved and explore possibilities, I was able to concentrate on my studies more and my finances less, and I was able to experience and contribute to UD in a way I wouldn’t have been able to. ”

INVEST IN THE SGT JEFFREY B. DODGE AND STAFF SGT RONALD R. SAGERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

As endowed scholarships, these will be given in perpetuity to current UD students – a fitting way to ensure that Jeff and Ron’s legacies are forever part of UD history.

INVESTING IN STUDENT VETERANS

- GI Bill benefits don’t cover the entire cost of education for some students. Annual Student Veteran Scholarships can help bridge that gap. Many choose to invest monthly in this effort.
- Endowed scholarship investments can also be made in the Sergeant Jeffrey B. Dodge Scholarship or Staff Sergeant Ronald R. Sagers Memorial Scholarship.
- Investments can also be made to the Veterans Emergency Relief Fund. This fund provides immediate financial relief for student veterans and their families in the case of financial burdens that may impact students continuing their education. This fund has been instrumental in assisting UD student veterans in financial crisis. Cases may include emergency automobile repairs, home furnace repair, medical bills, prescription payments, and assistance with rental costs.

HOW TO INVEST:

ONLINE: www.dbq.edu/invest

ON-CAMPUS: cash, check, credit card

OTHER: e.g. donor advised fund, stocks/securities transfer, matching gifts, pledge

If you are interested in learning about payment methods available for this project, or have any questions, please contact the Office of Advancement at 563.589.3158 or udadvancement@dbq.edu.

He later earned his master of business administration from UD in 2002. During his time as a student, Kevin was a member of Alpha Chi, named a Crescent Aviation Honored Senior, worked as a flight instructor, and completed an internship at the Dubuque Regional Airport.

Kevin began his professional career at the Dubuque Regional Airport in 1993 as an operations supervisor, helping establish the airport's first operations department. He later served as the Dubuque Air Service FBO Supervisor, and as a part-time corporate pilot.

In 2000, Kevin returned to the University of Dubuque as an associate professor in the Department of Aviation. He taught management and ground school courses, provided flight instruction, managed the aviation internship program, and served as an FAA Airman Certification Representative. He was especially passionate about mentoring students and helping them achieve their professional goals.

He also helped advance construction of the airport's new passenger terminal before retiring in 2025. His 17 years with the airport marked the culmination of a career dedicated to advancing aviation in Iowa, from educating future aviation professionals to strengthening airport operations, expanding commercial air service, and advancing critical infrastructure.

Under Britni's leadership, NAMI Dubuque has grown from an all-volunteer working board into a recognized, award-winning mental health nonprofit serving communities throughout eastern Iowa. She led the opening of the organization's first program center in 2023 while expanding access to mental health education, advocacy, wellness services, and no-cost peer-led programming in Dubuque, Jones, and Delaware counties.

Her influence extends beyond the local level. Britni has participated in the NAMI National Executive Director Leadership Exchange and served as a national presenter. Jorge and Patti Rangel Jorge and Patti Rangel's connection to the University of Dubuque began as parents. Their daughter Sidney (Rangel) Kohl (C'11, MBA'16), was the first to attend UD, introducing Jorge and Patti to the University and its campus community. They loved coming to campus and supporting Sidney throughout her college experience. Their connection to UD grew even stronger when their daughter Chelsea Rangel (C'16), also chose to become a Spartan, making the University an important part of the Rangel family.

Several years later, Jorge's connection to UD expanded when he joined the University as an aviation campus shuttle driver supporting the Babka Aviation Learning Center. What began as a role helping students has grown into a larger opportunity to serve the University community. Today, Jorge serves as coordinator of university programs and strategic initiatives, while Patti is a customer service specialist with Gallagher.

In his role at UD, Jorge remains focused on helping students succeed. He describes his work as "selling dreams and helping them come true" and finds great joy in making a positive impact on their goals and future careers. He also helps build Spartan spirit by coordinating pep rallies and other events that foster community and connection across campus.

As self-proclaimed "UD cheerleaders," Jorge and Patti generously volunteer their time and talents throughout the University. They are familiar faces at athletic events and concerts, cheering on and supporting UD students. Together, they support alumni events and host the Aviation Homecoming Tailgate, while Patti has also volunteered during Campus Visit Days, helping with setup and welcoming prospective students and families. In addition, Jorge and Patti support campus beautification efforts, contributing more than 25 hours to power washing and cleaning outdoor areas across campus and painting residence hall lounges. They have also donated games for students to enjoy in the residence halls.

Their support of students often extends beyond campus. They have welcomed countless students into their home for home-cooked meals and games, provided rides to campus or shopping trips, loaned their truck to help students move or pick up furniture, and donated food and treats for student events. No matter the need, for Jorge and Patti, their service is about supporting students, serving UD's Mission, and paying it forward.

In addition to their service, Jorge and Patti are proud UD parents. Sidney now serves as head strength and conditioning coach at the University. Chelsea, a graduate of UD's nursing program, is returning to school after 10 years as a nurse to become a certified registered nurse anesthetist in California. Jorge and Patti are loving grandparents and enjoy spending time with their family.

Jorge and Patti reside in Dubuque, Iowa. Outside of work and volunteering, they enjoy working on projects around their home and traveling out west together. They consider themselves blessed to be part of the University of Dubuque and are grateful for the people and relationships that have made UD feel like home.
